Landis has convinced me, not that this is a nonsensical amendment because I don't consider the disposition of property right up there with the disposition of one's life through a living will, but I think that the amendment probably is not needed and I have an amendment that is coming after this that will deal with the issue in a little different manner and I would be willing to address it and live with a determination on that amendment at this time, and I would respectfully ask to withdraw this amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: It is withdrawn. Next item, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Hall would move, Senator Hall, I understand, Senator, you had...this is the amendment I believe, Senator, you would like to substitute for, is that correct?

SENATOR HALL: Mr. Clerk, we have 1968 that is filed, right?

CLERK: That is correct.

SENATOR HALL: And I would like to substitute 2203.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Any objections to the substitution? If not, sobeit

CLERK: All right, Senator, I have pending AM2203. (See pages 1222-23 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Mr. President and members. As the Clerk has stated, we are dealing with AM2203 which has been passed out on your desks because I literally forgot to have it printed. I told Senator Landis that I would have everything printed for Select File and I do apologize for this oversight, and that is clearly what it was, but this is virtually the same amendment that was printed but it is a better version of it in that I think it takes care of a problem with regard to an issue that would be raised in opposition to this amendment. I would like to go through the amendment with you, just basically read it to you. What it says is that a declaration or a living will shall be in effect for a period of five years from the date of its execution unless the declaration is sooner revoked in the manner described in Section 6 of this act. Okay. It says if the declarant has executed more than one declaration, the five-year period shall be determined from the date of execution of the last unrevoked declaration known to the attending
